to enable them to go to Bangalore, and reasonable pay offered to the officiating men.

3. On a full consideration of the question, it appears to me fair and reasonable to give the candidates under training full pay without Horse allowance during their stay at Bangalore and to sanction Rs. 15/-, equivalent to the pay of a second grade jemedar, to the officiator together with the horse allowance available for the appointment. This arrangement, while giving a sufficient allowance to the candidate, also provides for his locum tenens, at minimum cost to Government. The extra cost involved would be Rs. 24 x 15, or Rs. 360 per mensem and as the course of training will last from 6 to 8 months, I request Government will be pleased to sanction an expenditure of Rs. 2,160 to Rs. 2,880 for this purpose, the charge being met from General Savings in the Police Budget. Considering the advantages to be gained from the scheme, I trust Government will agree with me that the amount asked for will be most advantageously spent.—

To No. 1

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

SIR,

I have the honor to report that I have arranged to re-open the class for training candidates for Inspectors and Jemedars' posts; and this time the class will consist of promising young men already in the Police service in the Inspectors or Jemedar's grade, who will receive good training in drill, shooting, Photography and Survey as well as in the Code and thus become efficient Police Officers combining useful knowledge with experience. A circular No. 993/33 dated 20th Ultimo addressed to the Deputy Commissioners of Districts, with a view to secure a good selection of Candidates is herewith submitted for the information of Government.

2. It is expected that 3 men from each District will be selected, or 24 for the Province. The circular proposed to give a moiety of pay to the candidates during the period of their tuition at Bangalore, the other moiety being reserved for their locum tenens. But from the unanimous representations received from District Officers, it appears that men in service who are fit to be admitted into the training class are very reluctant to go to Bangalore on half pay which will be quite insufficient to maintain them. Moreover, the other moiety will, in many cases, fall short of the pa of a Lance or last grade Duffedar and as such fail to attract competen men to officiate. Under these circumstances, it is feared that the scheme which promises to materially improve the men already in the Police service will not work satisfactorily unless some facilities are given to the candidate

To

THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS

It is proposed to re-open the class for training candidates for Police Inspectors' and Jamedars' posts, and advantage will be taken of this opportunity to give a good training to men who are already in the Police service; and with this view, the Inspector General of Police has the honor to request the Deputy Commissioners and Superintendents of Police, to select from each District two or three men of the Inspector's or Jamedar's grade, capable of improvement, ambitious of rising in the service, and possessing the qualifications here-under mentioned.

The men selected should not be too old to learn. They must be intelligent and willing men, possessing a fair knowledge of Canarese or English and likely to profit by the instruction imparted in the training class, in the * marginally noted subjects.

* Drill and shooting.

During the time these men attend the school, they may be allowed a moiety of their pay and for the due conduct of the work in the Districts, wherever necessary, the Deputy Commissioners may, in place of such men, appoint temporarily the candidates who have already passed from the Police School and who are attached to their Districts as per this office circular No. 555—17 of 15th August 1893. The men selected under this circular may be directed to report themselves at this office not later than the 30th instant.
